

CSEE/SCEE 2008 Restaurant recommendations (OFF CAMPUS)

Restaurants are listed by food type (Thai, Indian, etc). Directions are given in relation to bus routes in Vancouver. The main bus route from UBC is called the 99 or the B-line and can be picked up from the main bus terminal station at UBC. Buses leave approx every 5-10 minutes. The main stops along the B line are Sasamat, Alma, McDonald, Granville and then further down a couple of stops is Main. Most restaurants listed below are along either 10th avenue or Broadway, which is on the B-line route. In the restaurant 'Directions' section it states what bus stop the restaurant is at so you can choose based on distance and preference. Another popular restaurant area is 4th Avenue; to get to 4th you need to take the no 44 or 84 from the main bus terminal station (see UBC map for more information). Bus tickets are $2.25 (they will not give change), and a transfer will last you for 2 hours (time stamped on your ticket).

SUSHI

Aoki Suhsi - 1888 Broadway West (and Cypress) 'has outstanding sushi at reasonable prices. You can easily feed yourself and have leftovers for under $20. It isn't a huge place so probably not a great choice if you're traveling with a crowd and on weekends you might have to wait a bit for a table. Sadly they are closed on Mondays" Kristine Metzger - Post doc, Sinclair Lab

Directions: From UBC catch the 99 and get off at the Granville stop, walk about 3 1/2 blocks back in the direction of campus (west). Sushi Aoki is on the south side of the street.

Sushi Sushi, 2965 West Broadway - "tasty and cheap" Crispin Jordan, PhD student, Otto lab

Directions: From UBC catch the 99 and get off at the McDonald stop, cross the street and walk about 1 block back in the direction of campus (west). Sushi Sushi is on the north side of the street.

Shin ju - 01-1401 Broadway West

INDIAN

Vij's and Rangoli - 1480 11th Avenue West

"Vij's and Rangoli (next door) on 11th @ Granville for dinner.

Internationally recognized Indian food; slightly on the pricy side, but worth the occasional splurge. Also recommend the Vij's cookbook, so you can make their best recipes at home." Stephen Ban,

Note: Vij's does not take reservations and there is often a wait for a table - but well worth the wait.

Directions: From UBC catch the 99 and get off at the Granville stop, walk 1 block to the south on Granville Street and take a left the restaurant is on the south side of the street off of 11th Ave.

Chutney Villa -147 Broadway East

"It has fantastic southern Indian food served by great hosts at reasonable prices.

(It always wins 2nd spot for best Indian restaurant after VJ's but it is MUCH more affordable). Enjoy!" Jen Gow, Post doc

Directions: From UBC catch the 99 and get off at the Main stop, cross the street and you should see it to your left.

Indian Grill -1835 4th Avenue West
